Alastair McDonald

'Folksinger, Entertainer, Broadcaster'

'Man Alive' presentation

Wednesday 6th February 2019, at 7.15pm

At Dumfries Baptist Church Centre

Hot supper will be provided after the presentation

Alastair McDonald is firmly established as Scotland's leading musical minstrel. In addition to television, radio & stage appearances worldwide, he is a prolific recording artist and can be heard on a variety of labels, most notably CORBAN RECORDINGS, situated in his native Scotland.

Alastair's radio and TV credits are too numerous to list, as are his recordings. He has performed to audiences in many parts of the world. Alastair is equally at home in a jazz club, folk club, variety show, theatre, concert hall or church - not because he tailors his performance to the venue of the moment, but rather, as a confessing Christian, believes that a solid, entertaining, wholesome, uncompromising, thought provoking repertoire should show no bounds or require an apology wherever it may be performed.

Alastair is looking forward to sharing songs and stories at 'Man Alive'.
